

Media consolidation ultimately will not allow for new and emerging artists to be heard. Britney Spears is not art. Please don't allow our airwaves to be another successful attack in the corporate war against the first amendment! Leave our airwaves as open as possible! The life of audial art in the United States depends on it.

Jason Dunn
Boston